

RADIO-COTEAU

Savoy

ANDERSON VALLEY PINOT NOIR

Organically Grown

Native Fermentations

Unfined and Unfiltered

“The 2014 Pinot Noir Savoy is exquisite. Dark, powerful and concentrated because of the low yields that year, the 2014 exudes richness and intensity, within the context of the Radio-Coteau style, of course. Dark red cherry, plum, violet notes flesh out, but the Savoy stands out for its power and structure. The Savoy is shaping up to be a real jewel of a wine.”

—Antonio Galloni

(92-95) points

On a stunning hillside vineyard located northwest of Philo, Savoy's Pinot Noir grapes develop intense flavor over a growing season lengthened by the cooling maritime influence that funnels through the Anderson Valley. A complex patchwork of clonal selections, each block is farmed to its own specific needs. Hand-picked at night and trucked to the cellar in the early morning allows for optimum handling and whole berry integrity.

The 2014 Savoy Pinot Noir highlights what makes Anderson Valley Pinot and furthermore the Savoy vineyard so unique. The wine delicately balances fruit and earth components harmoniously. Red and black fruits of fresh, ripe black cherry, black plum, wild strawberry, and fresh blackberry roll out of the glass and onto the palate. An exotic dimension is added with the tone of Chinese five spice - namely anise and nutmeg - as well as other baking spices lent by the oak, while a lingering earthy aroma provides a tip of the cap to something decidedly more old world.

